JAI KISAN INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Background & Aims:

The Jai Kisan Internship Program is run by Jai Kisan Andolan, a campaign wing of Swaraj Abhiyan, led by Prashant Bhushan and Yogendra Yadav. It is an opportunity for students and youth to work on policy issues concerned with agriculture, to understand the agrarian crisis of India, and to develop an understanding of the possibilities and pitfalls in addressing it.

The Program aims to:

- Augment career choices of Interns in alignment with nation building and civil society opportunities
- Help Interns innovate-invent-deploy bottom of pyramid solutions that have the potential to change India
- Sensitize Interns to the problems facing rural India in general and agrarian communities in particular
- Help Interns develop the spirit of active citizenship in themselves
- Create tomorrow's leaders who are anchored in an understanding of rural India
- Harness India's best young minds to work on constructive rural programs and agricultural agendas

Learning Areas

The following are the areas where Interns can expect to work and learn:

- Researching local and policy issues faced by farmers
- Liasoning with government officers and other related people
- Being part of teams working on social media, website content management, graphic designing, creation of interactive videos, etc.
- To study and understand the ordinances, Acts, laws, judgments and orders related to agriculture and agrarian issues
- To collect and document data related to farmers' issues
- To research government policy and relevant laws that have significant implications for agriculture in India
- Interacting with and learning from activists and professionals focused on agricultural, environmental, food policy and legal issues such as farmers' loans, marketing of agricultural products, Minimum Support Prices and food safety.
- To conduct investigations and analyses on agrarian issues, to inform and guide agricultural policy making.

Duration of Internship

- The internship is for a period of four weeks
- On successful completion, Interns shall be awarded a Certificate and an opportunity to work with Swaraj Abhiyan for a year.
